MUSEUM AND EXHIBIT CENTER

HISTORIC BRADFORD, PENNSYLVANIA

The Marilyn Horne Museum and Exhibit Center showcases highlights from the personal archive of legendary opera singer, Marilyn Horne. Located in Bradford, Pennsylvania's historic downtown district, the museum is housed in a six-story, circa 1932 Art Deco building. Collection highlights include costumes, interactive audio and visual exhibits, and a documentary film shown in a sumptuous theater designed to evoke the ambience of Venice's famed 'Teatro la Fenice'.

Other amenities include an adjacent café offering light fare such as pastries and grab-and-go salads, and Starbucks coffee. The café and gift shop accept all major credit cards.

HOURS OF OPERATION:

The museum is open daily year-round but closed most major holidays.

Museum hours:

Monday - Saturday 9 a.m. until 5 p.m.
Sundays from 11 a.m. until 4 p.m.

Café and Gift Shop hours:

The Marilyn Horne Museum and Exhibit Center has something for everyone on your next motorcoach adventure. Tour our 3,400 square-foot interactive museum or enjoy a behind-the-scenes look at our collection of stage costumes, and gowns created by renowned Hollywood designer Barbara Matera.

Shop in the region's most unique museum gift store or book an English-style high tea for your group. The museum's director will personally greet and guide your visit.

Looking for something special? High Tea at Marilyn Horne Hall is the perfect afternoon for groups of 10 to 56 participants. This buffet-style event offers a traditional menu of high tea favorites. Dine in a private space while listening to a backdrop of classical music. Then join the museum's docent for a presentation before touring the exhibition. Each guest receives a small gift before departing.
