

What Makes an Opera

CROSSWORD

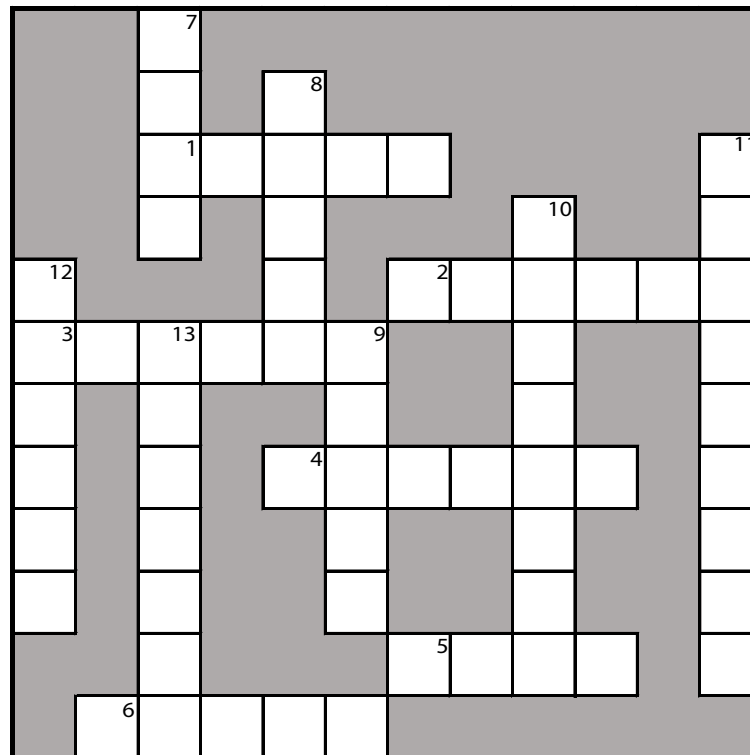

Staging an opera is a lot of work. It requires a lot more than just singers. Complete this crossword to discover some of the many elements that make a grand performance.

Hint: Use a pencil and write your answers lightly in case you need to make a change!

ACROSS

1. Don't make a _____!
2. A large group of singers
3. They're such characters
4. Use this to transform your face
5. Sometimes worn on Halloween
6. These sometimes hold things up

DOWN

7. If you break your arm you might have to wear one
8. He's not a bass or a baritone
9. All the world is one of these according to William Shakespeare
10. These are not everyday clothes
11. They make the music
12. A story told through dance
13. A place for more than just movies

THE MARILYN HORNE MUSEUM AND EXHIBIT CENTER

marilynhorne.org